CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Leader: On this silent night when we gather to celebrate the birth of Emmanuel, we confess that our own noise has drowned out the melody of God's redeeming love. On this silent night, we confess our sins together:

All: Loving God, we confess that we have sinned against you and our neighbors. We have rejected your invitation to life. We have failed to live in your love. We have turned away from the lowly and downtrodden in whom you dwell. In your abundant mercy, forgive us our sins—those we know and those known only to you—for the sake of the one who came to live among us, Jesus Christ, our Savior. Amen.

Hear the good news of great joy: God forgives us all our sins, not through our own efforts, but through † Jesus Christ, who is born to all people. Rejoice in this amazing gift of grace.

Amen. Thanks be to God!

MUSIC O Come, All Ye Faithful

Verse 3

Sing, choirs of angels, Sing in exultation, Sing, all ye citizens of heaven above! Glory to God in the highest! (Refrain)

LIGHTING OF THE CHRISTMAS & ADVENT CANDLES

A reading from John 1:1-5: In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

MUSIC Hark, the Herald Angels Sing #270 vss 1 and 3

Verse 1

Hark! The herald angels sing, "Glory to the newborn king;

Peace on earth, and mercy mild, God and sinners reconciled." Joyful, all you nations, rise;

FIRST SCRIPTURE READING

² The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness — on them light has shined. ³You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. ⁴For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. ⁵For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.

He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

COMMUNION PRAYER

Emmanuel, God with us, you freely offer us the gift of grace and give us bread for the journey. Send us out into this world that you love, to extend the grace we've received and to share the bread we've been given, in the name of Jesus Christ, the bread of life. All: Amen.

CELEBRATION OF LIGHT

Pastor: Let's now share the light, reminding us of the light of Christ that is given to us this night, and the light that we're called to take forth into the world. If you're worshiping onsite, the flame will be passed to you by a neighbor. If you're worshiping online, you're invited to dim the lights at your home and light a candle as we sing Silent Night. Candles may remain lit through the end of the service.

Pastor: One candle is but a flicker, but our many flames join together to reflect one light, Jesus Christ, the light of the world, who shines in the darkness.

^{}When lighting, please hold the unlit candle over the lit candle

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

LORD'S PRAYER

Gathered into one body by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us:

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

HOLY COMMUNION

Jesus shows up in a lowly manger, and in the simple gifts of bread and wine. Come, meet Christ in this meal.

The body of Christ is given for you. Amen. The blood of Christ is shed for you. Amen.

If you're worshiping onsite, an usher will dismiss your row. You'll be invited to then come forward to receive bread (gluten-free option available upon request) and wine (grape juice option available upon request). Baskets where you can place empty cups are located at the end of the first pews. If you'd like communion to be brought to you, we'd be glad to do so...simply cue an usher.

If you're worshiping online, you're invited to partake in this holy meal with bread and wine/juice, trusting that God is present in it, and that it draws us together as one body in Christ, even across all the different tables we find ourselves.

towns to be registered. ⁴Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. ⁵He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. ⁶While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. ⁷And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

⁸In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see — I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: ¹¹to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. ¹²This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." ¹³And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, ¹⁴"Glory to God in the highest heaven.

and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

¹⁵When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." ¹⁶So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.
